

Quiz

What is the Internet and how do I use it?

Your Name: _____

1. What is the internet?

- a group of computers
- e-mail connections
- Usenet
- a world-wide network of networks

2. There is a vast system of interconnected networks on the internet. What are networks?

- television stations
- two or more computers connected together
- programs used for searching
- groups of programmers

3. What is the World Wide Web?

- a computer game
- a software program
- the part of the Internet that enables information-sharing via interconnected pages
- another name for the Internet

4. Which is the best search tool for finding Web sites that have been handpicked and recommended by someone else?

- subject directories
- search engines
- meta-search engines
- discussion groups

5. Which one of the following is a search engine?

- Macromedia Flash
- Google
- Netscape
- Librarians' Index to the Internet

6. What is a URL?

- a computer software program
- a type of UFO
- the address of a document or "page" on the World Wide Web
- an acronym for Unlimited Resources for Learning

7. Sites on the World Wide Web have web pages. What are web pages?

- documents on the computer screen that contain hypertext.
- documents and pages in a book
- documents that contain information
- computer start screens

8. When you finish typing, scroll to the top of the page. Scroll means

- cut and paste what you have typed
- use the mouse to move the bar at the right side of the screen
- save and print your document
- click on the box at the top right of your screen

9. One type of webpage is the home page. What is a home page?

- a web page that has your name and address on it.
- an Internet connection on the web
- the first page of a web site
- a graphic display

10. Web pages have graphics and menus. What are graphics?

- pictures and symbols
- letters and words
- numbers and cursors
- links and nets

11. What is a menu?

- a subject directory
- a graphic of the items
- an icon of the list available
- a list of items available to choose from

12. Most web pages include hypertext. What is hypertext?

- blue words and phrases
- specially colored words and phrases
- words and phrases that link to other web pages
- colorful graphic images

13. In this class we used a browser, directories, and search engines to find information. What is a browser?

- a program that finds information for you on the web
- a program that lists information available
- a program that browses through books available
- a program that you use to look through information on the Internet

14. What do directories do?

- list the information you search for
- list addresses and phone numbers
- list information by categories
- list information for librarians

15. What do search engines do?

- allow you to view information
- show you information by category
- search the web for you while you wait
- list information for librarians